

Obtained Enslavement, Utopia Obtained

I declare war upon a heaven that was ours This I swear - by the ancient gods that the Millennium Beast devoured I'll desecrate - you'll tremble at my feet Step aside - as I place myself upon his seat
When I lay my hands upon the ones who guard his seat
Their souls will be consumed by fire, by the time they reach my feet I will claim - what is mine to take my realm I shall obtain Beyond the gates - of heaven hides a god who dares not meet me For centuries - he's been hiding in a realm he calls his own I will not stand down - any longer:
I will crush his fucking throne Crushed and broken shalt they be whilst crawling for their god Alone and unprotected
I will drag him through the mud Gather for the holocaust of all mankind
The holy speak of second coming, but paradise is mine Cast out was I, but not destroyed
My spirit lives eternal My soul yearns for a piece of heaven that is can call mine Those who dare to speak of God, shalt swing from nearest tree They shalt forever hold their tongue, or I will rip it from their mouth Their memories
will be forced forgotten, never shalt their names be heard J.C. the shepherd shall be served from his fucking herd
