

Ocean Colour Scene, Beautiful Losers

Your dream make-up is cracked and wearing thin
Your eyes are on your chin
It's getting hard for you
But to make up is only make-believe
And we don't need a scene like this
Whatever happened to the Beautiful Losers
Whatever happened to the Beautiful Losers
Your eyes closed and dreamed of places that you and I would go
It's getting hard for me to love you, like I used to
I don't believe "hello"
Do you?
Whatever happened to the Beautiful Losers
Whatever happened to the Beautiful Losers
