

Ocean Colour Scene, How About You

She never has to stop and think
Never makes you lose a thing
She is so enchanting
I always have to stop a while
Cross my hands and close my eyes
I am so demanding
CHORUS: When she smiles she opens wide
    Touching you inside to lie
    Life can be so shaking handed
    Nervously you're shaking signs
    Life is better taken blind
    Still you're left so disenchanted
Giving it all away
Giving it all away
You always have to stop and think
Desperately to find something
That is even handed
I never want to think a thing
That shatters almost everything
Life can leave you hanging
{Repeat chorus}
Giving it all away
Giving it all away
Today, new day,
I'm so tired of flewn day
I've got no one to say
What is wrong is that you can't say
{Repeat chorus}
Giving it all away
Giving it all away
Giving it all away
Giving it all away
