

Ocean Colour Scene, Soul Driver

Straighten your collar and smile
'Cause you've never been lazy
'Cause you in a style
Call the shots every day
Soul Driver
Don't hurry
It's my timing
It's not your worry
And I'm taking my time
And laying my roots
Since I've been so far away
You're such a practical man
You work so hard for your living
You make me understand
That it's all in the giving
Chorus repeated over and over
