

Oceans Of Sadness, Re-Erased

Analyse hate
As wolves catch the sheep
Feasting on others
Killing, just to survive...

Slumbering lust
Forfilled with all blood
Mirrors will turn
Your image back to yourself

Forget this pain
Eating our lives
Free yourself now
Or, just suffocate

Mistress of life
Free me now
Take off this shell
Re-erase

Child in time
It's the overdrive
It's the light inside that we feel
We've gotta light our
Candles now before we decide that
We'll never die
We've gotta lay down

When Jesus cried
We crawled out of our pit
And flew... Away up in the sky
