

Oceans Of Sadness, You've Slain

When the doubt disappears and the sky becomes clear, then you will grow... When your faith remains strong and your lust will go on, then you will show me how to be like you, how to fly like an angel and land without wings, show me please how I become you, how to act like an angel yet seem to be cruel, tell me how to be you Promise me sunshine but end up with rain, oh how your words spread like poison, invincible shame, oh how you've SLAIN!
Promise me sunshine but end up with rain, oh how your words spread like poison, invincible shame, oh how you...
Freeze my emotions when choosing my pain, oh how you torture, then treasure, then over again, oh how you've SLAIN
Come in fire... pulling wires... no...
It's that time of the year when suspicion is near...
