

October Project, Bury My Lovely

Cover the mirror
Hide in your dreams
Forget what they told you
Forget what it means

A picture worth a thousand lies
The mem'ry and the mirror
Nothing but what came before
Nothing but a closing door

pre-chorus

A picture worth a thousand lies
A thousand words
A thousand eyes

chorus

Bury my lovely
Hide in your room
Bury my lovely
Forget me soon
Forget me
Forget me now
Forget me not

Cover the madness
Cover the fear
No one will ever
Know you were here
A figure in the hallway light
Returning like a ghost
Something that was left behind
Something in a child's mind

pre-chorus

chorus

Bury my lovely
Bury the lies Bury me under
A thousand good-byes

A shadow from another time
Is waiting in the night
Something happened long ago
Something that will not let go

chorus
