

Of Montreal, Dreamy Day Of Daydreaming Of You

You're my muse you're my silly goose
and every day is a dreamy day of daydreaming of you.
You're my one you're my honey bun
and every day is a dreamy day of daydreaming of you.

I can dream of you without snoring and I'm lucky that that's true.
Because everyone would know that I found them boring simply because they're not you. All I want

You're my love you're my star above
And everyday is a dreamy day of daydreaming of you
