

Of Montreal, Honeymoon In San Francisco

Honeymoon in San Francisco, what a grand idea.

We'll rent a room in a four-star hotel

We'll spend the whole time drunk on champagne and lime

We'll never feel the need to get out of bed, though on occasion we'll charter a boat sail off to a distant

Once there we'll take off our shoes and relax beneath the sun

We won't care if we lose our minds

We won't care if we live or die

We'll spend the whole time drunk on champagne and lime

We won't care if we lose our minds
