

Offset, Where It Shouldn't

Wrong side of the bed today
Newspapers floating my way
I close my eyes... Dont want to read the headlines
Because Ive started to lose faith
All the colors turn to grey
And it seems to me that hope cant save the day

Cause everything is where it shouldnt
All the things we said we wouldnt... We did
Can you believe the mess were in its overwhelming
But you tell me everything will work out fine
Cause its just another line
Until I see the words fall flat from your lips

Cause everything is exactly where it shouldnt
And everything is exactly where it shouldnt be
Everything is exactly where it shouldnt
Is exactly where it shouldnt be

Wrong side of the world today
Its where you sleep so far away
So close your eyes
And hope the next time you will wake youll see mine
Then nothing else would seem to matter
Even if this whole world shattered... I know...
Id have you here with me to pick up the pieces
And put them right back into place
Fragmatic in your grace
And it seems just like the first time... The last time

But everything is where it shouldnt
To leave my bed I couldnt
Not today... Not until I see the sun light here again

Everything is exactly where it shouldnt
Everything is exactly where it shouldnt be
Everything is exactly where it shouldnt
Is exactly where it shouldnt be

Everything is exactly where it shouldnt
Everything is exactly where it shouldnt be
Everything is exactly where it shouldnt
Is exactly where it shouldnt be

And youre not here to dry these tears
And keep it all together
And im writing you this letter
About foggy stormy weather
Cause its freezing... Its cold here
And I need this more than ever
So please... Please... Stay with me

Until the sun comes up again
Till its warmer than its ever been
Until the sun comes up again
