

Oh Wonder, Magnificent

I'm at 40,000 feet with a circle of the sea and I can't look down
I guess everyone's asleep as the pilot's singing sweet, so alive right now
Flying up sky high
And then suddenly I see what my future could have been if I hadn't found you

If I never told you my name, we would be strangers
And I wonder what we'd have made if we were two
Nothing as magnificent
Got nothing on me and you
Yeah, if I never told you my name then we would be
We would be strangers
We would be strangers

In the sticky summer heat, I got grass stains on my knees and I'm infinite
Couple lovers running free, eyes are looking straight at me and I'm into it
You're my un-believe
And then suddenly I see what my future could have been if I didn't pick you

If I never told you my name, we would be strangers
And I wonder what we'd have made if we were two
Nothing as magnificent
Got nothing on me and you
Yeah, if I never told you my name then we would be

All my cares are unbound
Got my heart in my mouth
And we're dancing in fire
Will you promise me this
That with every kiss
You'll adore me and hold me for life?
I would go, baby
An everglow, baby
I would go away so far to say it
We're magnificent Magnificent

And if I never told you my name, we would be strangers
And I wonder what we'd have made if we were two
Nothing as magnificent
Got nothing on me and you
Yeah, if I never told you my name then we would be
We would be strangers
We would be strangers

Nothing as magnificent
We would be strangers
Nothing as magnificent
