

Oingo Boingo, Open Eyes

May the memories not be forgot May we never lose our mind may no one tamper with our thoughts for the sake of open eyes

For open eyes my dear
for open eyes
we will not drink to blindness dear We'll drink to open eyes!

The mindless cretin on parade they may fill our lives with fear Should we forgive and look away
Well perhaps, but not this year!

For open eyes my dear
For open eyes
We will not drink to blindness dear
We'll drink to open eyes

Our enemies may come on strong They may try to break our will
Should we forgive and look away
Just before we spring to kill!

For open eyes my dear
for open eyes
we will not drink to blindness dear
