

Ola Bieńkowska, 2000 And Fine

I won't never lie again
Never ___ street friend
Never let the judgments ___
With heavy hands

I will try take more chances
Smile, despite the circumstance
And I never let the details cloud my ___

The past is, past is blind
And change will last this time
I never lose my temper
Never live my life for later
Or be sorry for things I do or didn't
I will pay my bills on time
Do my things always fine

All of the human kind

So kiss me, kiss my mouth
I will follow true somehow
And change will last this time
It's raining confetti
2000 and fine
