

Ola, Rain

I remember when we met
Before I was invisible
I thought I played hard to get
Pretend I'm unapproachable
But somebody else came along
And took all the chances that I missed
Stuck on the sideline I keep thinking
There she goes
Falling like rain
No I don't get to hold her tonight
Falling like rain
I was pushed to the back of the line
'Cos even though I need her love
And crave her touch
I guess I wasn't fast enough
Falling like rain
Just not for me, not for me no no
Why I took the longest road
I'll have to plead insanity
It's like my pride put on a show
And didn't sell a single seat
While I was talking in riddles
Somebody else made perfect sense
Stuck on the outside I keep thinking
There she goes
Falling like rain
No I don't get to hold her tonight
Falling like rain
I was pushed to the back of the line
'Cos even though I need her love
And crave her touch
I guess I wasn't fast enough
Falling like rain
Just not for me, not for me
What do you do, what do you say
When the best thing has passed you by
Where do you go, how do you know
If she'll come back another time
She's falling like rain
She's falling like rain
She's falling like rain
She's falling like
Rain
No I don't get to hold her tonight
Falling like rain
I was pushed to the back of the line
'Cos even though I need her love
And crave her touch
I guess I wasn't fast enough
Falling like rain
Just not for me, not for me
She's falling like rain
