

Old Man's Child, My Evil Revelations

I can hear the demons call from within my inner self
I can feel destruction roars from beyond another world
There's something coming forth visions from the ancient times they rape my mind as I try to resist but I can't cause I'm just like them Fear... as I become possessed to a beast with human detest cursed.
I will roam this earth I'm reborn by the devils birth
Open the gates to hell and turn loose your immortal slaves Shadows in the dark beasts to the full moon bark those that evil breed the sons of Satan's seed I despise you I'm at war with the living race
Come before me
And fear my demonic face
