

Oleander, King Of Good Intentions

There's nowhere left to turn
There's no one left to burn
There's nothing left to gain
There's no one left to blame

Time after time
Didn't mean to let you down
Tried to turn it all around
Time after time
If I tell you that I'd try
It's be another lie

Cause I'm the king of good intentions
I always let you down
I'm the king of good intentions
I'm never around
Don't it blow your mind to see
Honey you are just like me
You're just like me

There's nowhere left to go
Nothing left to show
There's nothing I won't do
To spend my life with you

Don't it blow your mind to see
Honey you are just like me
