

Oleander, Reaching Out

Get out of bed
Rise and shine, lazy head
The day is long and to you it belongs
You dump the clutch and grab the gear
You hold your line and try to steer

So grab yourself a souvenir (honey)
Don't give up on the dreams that you have (honey)
Even if they don't include me (honey)
Cause even if it means we're through
I'm reaching out to you
I'm reaching out to you
I'm reaching out to you
I'm reaching out to...

Surprise, surprise
Where'd you go?
What'd you find?
What would it take?
A lucky break
To change your mind
The bottom line is all you hear
With every hurdle that you clear

So grab yourself a souvenir (honey)
Don't give up on the dreams that you have (honey)
Even if they don't include me (honey)
Cause even if it means we're through
I'm reaching out to you
I'm reaching out to you
I'm reaching out to you
I'm reaching out to you
I'm reaching out to you
I'm reaching out to you

And it's never been the same
And it's never been a game
And there's no one else to blame
Cause even if it means we're through
I'm reaching out to you
I'm reaching out to you
I'm reaching out to you
I'm reaching out to you
I'm reaching out to you
I'm reaching out to you
I'm reaching out to you
