

Olivia Anna Livki, Subways

I was born in a small town
Grow up in the country
Oh, kids, they hate me
And I hate the kids
Sailing on swings to the sunset
Like a ..
Security track
Suburbs are our homes for elderly
And..
So we join to bingo
The kids we knew
They've never changed
Just get old, sad and boredom

We run alone with the subways
We run alone with the city night trains
When the life that's incredible
When the life that's impassible
