

Olivia Lufkin, Cupid

In emergencies

I close my eyes

And i see a ghost

I flutter to the light

And pray for lucidity

I can't keep waiting for you

I can't keep expecting you

Folding

The sun is turning inside-out of the universe so cupid cupid

Please aim your arrow at my sleeping flower

One time

Cupid cupid

I, won't take it for granted

I wonder about

With my perfume puff

Skipping on the trails

Of broken candy cane

I can't keep waiting for you

I can't keep expecting you

Folding

The sun is turning inside-out of the universe so

Cupid cupid

Please aim your arrow at my sleeping flower

One time

Cupid cupid

I can't keep waiting for you

I can't keep expecting you

I can't keep waiting for you

I can't keep expecting you
