

Olivia Lufkin, Fake Flowers

Farmers in the mid-west need good land
For their work so they can grow flowers
Farmers in the mid-west need good land
For their work so they can grow flowers
Crouched down between your walls
Bundled up nice and small
You walk in with your graceful smile
And ask me to grow you a beautiful flower
Farmers in the mid-west need good land
For their work so they can grow flowers
(please tell me you're not serious)
Farmers in the mid-west need good land
For their work so they can grow flowers
(it's not fair)
Farmers in the mid-west need good land
For their work so they can grow flowers
(please tell me you're not serious)
Farmers in the mid-west need good land
For their work so they can grow flowers
(it's not fair)
They want me to grow up
Follow the fucking laws
So i can live on earth
So i can provide them with a beautiful flower
Farmers in the mid-west need good land
For their work so they can grow flowers
(please tell me you're not serious)
Farmers in the mid-west need good land
For their work so they can grow flowers
(it's not fair)
Farmers in the mid-west need good land
For their work so they can grow flowers
(please tell me you're not serious)
Farmers in the mid-west need good land
For their work so they can grow flowers
(it's not fair)
How's it gonna grow
You expect it to grow
How's it gonna grow
You expect it to grow
Farmers in the mid-west need good land
For their work so they can grow flowers
(please tell me you're not serious)
Farmers in the mid-west need good land
For their work so they can grow flowers
(it's not fair)
Farmers in the mid-west need good land
For their work so they can grow flowers
(please tell me you're not serious)
Farmers in the mid-west need good land
For their work so they can grow flowers
(it's not fair)
Farmers in the mid-west need good land
For their work so they can grow flowers