

Olivia Newton-John, Slow Down Jackson

(Michel Brouman/Karen Gottlieb)

Hmmm...I love to see you when you aren't on the run
Looking long and lean and lazy lying in the sun
So, slow down Jackson, you don't have to fly anymore
Slow down Jackson, love must have left you at my door

Hmmm...You're a runner and you always will be
Maybe you can change your pacin' when you are runnin' with me
So, slow down Jackson, you don't have to fly anymore
Slow down Jackson, love must have left you at my door

Hmmm...You're like a rainbow stretched across the sun
Hmmm...My friend Jackson, warming everyone
So, slow down Jackson, you don't have to fly anymore
Slow down Jackson, love must have left you at my door

So, slow down Jackson, you were flying solo before
Slow down Jackson, love must have left you at my door
