

Olly Murs, Excuses

I've been thinking about, thinking about you too much lately it's been like you in there when we touch I've tried everything, but we keep losing us oh I , oh
I guess everything ain't enough

why can't you just be open and talk to me asking how you feel then you get up and leave talking you and me used to come easily

do you even know what you do to me?
going out of my mind
every secret that your keeping why won't you let me in
oh darling /2x

but it's useless
every time you pull me back with one kiss
and I;m telling everyone you didn't mean to do it and we can make it through this
but I;m just making up excuse

you and I /2x been lieke this way too long all I know it shouldn't be this hard to hold on it's hard to be around yu but I hate it when your gone tell me what's going wrong

I could blame myself
we're crying out for help
we're crying out, crying out

and I am telling everyone
but I am just making up excuses
