

On Broken Wings, A Movie Kind Of Life

drill in your face.
wasted life,
what that means to me.
separate your thoughts.
i could show you sometime.
with all your words
you could not paralyze.
this is not what mesmerizes me.
why don't i have more focus?
systematically speaking,
i'd like to fuck you up.
california's not far enough.
can't you see what
this means to me?
