

Once Tasted Life, Disclaim time is fading as i wonder and wonder we imitate its cold in the dark average standards fear new opinions-future plans built to last no trade backs

see the red light and walk claim to deny as we refuse to talk new on the path thats been set free to reset frame a picture (thats) describing a landscape paint a picture using colors of black if this was all about me id go hiding and lying not to fake sympathy
forced to reset
i mutate, go immune no attempt not to be alone after all thats been said im willing to forget
