

One Dove, The Transient Truth

Listen, can you think about this
If you take my words as promises
Well you can keep them
They're yours to keep

But if you wanna know the truth

My hand on my heart, my head in a fever...

Listen, I have something to concede
Can you hold an evanescent heart
Can you hold this ember
'Cause it glows for you

But if you wanna know the truth

My hand on my heart, my head in a fever...

Listen

But if you wanna know the truth

My hand on my heart, my head in a fever...
