

One Fine Day, Alien

they're so spoiled and living deep down in their holes demanding more with deep profanity never satisfied, grabbing greedy souls can't understand how they replace sanity and I feel so distant

I'm an alien in oblivion
I'm an alien not welcome anymore
in an area of hysteria

and of course it's allowed to make "little mistakes" life is just all about experience the less you know the less you have to fake the skill lies in just ignoring it all

and I feel so distant

I'm an alien in oblivion
I'm an alien not welcome anymore

I'm an alien just an alien in oblivion why do I feel so alienated is it all about cheating fate indifference is lying in wait hard time hard times hard times
