

One Fine Day, sorry

expectations say that youre not far away from the day when your life forces you to say that youre sorry for things you regret, some old decision, an old friend you met so youre ready to go - sorry, so long the years are passing by, your life becomes a lie and the profile of you deep inside will die you ignore your naivet, your fun and then its too late, youre too slow for the run

so your ready to go ?
why do you wanna die ? bye, bye, so long
