

One Man Army, The Holidays

don't know much about life these days
All I know is what I've been told
Well then lately everything seems to fall on deaf ears
I didn't know you" were gone until it was too late (hey)

And if it all, it ALL maybe my fault
I'll pay the constant ACHE thru the holidays";
Give me one more shot any, all or none
A way back to your heart

don't remember much these days
Only Us" when you were just 19
Well, Lately everything seems so Fucked up!
I didn't know you were gone until it was too late

And if all if all, it ALL maybe my fault
I'll pay the constant ACHE thru the holidays";
Give me one more shot. Any, all, or none
a way back to your heart..

And if all if all, it ALL maybe my fault
I'll pay the constant ACHE thru the holidays";
Give me one more shot. Any, all, or none
a way back to your heart..
