

One Minute Silence, A More Violent Approach

Where there's life there's dope
Where there's life there's dope
Where there's life there's dope
Where there's life there's dope

Where there's life there's dope
Where there's life there's dope
Where there's life there's dope
And what did you expect if not?

A more violent approach!
A more violent approach!

Hate to disappoint you, but this is it
Doesn't get any better, like purpose and all that shit
What you want doesn't come into this
Too many fucks, fucking it up, fucking with this, alright!

What about me? Well what about you? No exception
Nothing special, of no value, nothing to give
So what have they got to lose?
Ever became a real threat, history, old news
Easily disposed of government style
But should you ever piss oil

Where there's life there's dope
Where there's life there's dope
Where there's life there's dope
Where there's life there's dope

Where there's life there's dope
Where there's life there's dope
Where there's life there's dope
And what did you expect if not?

A more violent approach!
A more violent approach!
A more violent approach!
A more violent approach!

I've had enough, had it up
Go ahead drop the bomb, I couldn't give a fuck
Looks like I'm stuck with it, so every chance I get
I'm gonna get to a mic and fuck with it
Fuck this, fuck you, fuck it all, turned on, turned in, switched on Ain't never gonna play ball

Who are you? What do you know about me?
Holedigger, white nigger, but that's all you see
That's all you wanna see, that's all you wanna see
That's all you wanna see, and how I feel
Boom to the motherfucking head
Motherfucking head
Motherfucking head
Problem solved, dead!

Dead

I've come for me, I've come for me only
But under no illusions I'm no phoney
Like all of you, I want to see the system come down
But step back and accept the facts
Fact is, we do not make a sound
I've come for me, I've come for me

I've come for me, I've come for me only
I've come for me, I've come for me
I've come for me, I've come for me only

Where there's life there's dope
Where there's life there's dope
Where there's life there's dope
Where there's life there's dope

Where there's life there's dope
Where there's life there's dope
Where there's life there's dope
And what did you expect if not?

A more violent approach!
A more violent approach!
A more violent approach!
A more violent approach!

A more violent approach!
