

One Side Zero, Eight

secrets out unfold, whisper words be warned falling into one, its you i still believe chorus:

felt so alive, wish I could hold, its already full so phase me out of your life it's all, it's all, it's already full treat the son our own haven't seen him grow held the hand we lost its you I can't recall

(chorus)

you still believe, all that we couldnt see and it seemed so wrong but I wish I could, never will

It's already full
