

One Side Zero, Instead Laugh (Demo)

OneSideZero
Instead Laugh

suicide, something's missing I'm bound, in flesh, it cut once all his life, he was waiting control, faith left envy but all her life, she was searching so real, followed her own suicide, never showed me all that was true, for me I'm not like you...

but open your eyes
I drank from your mind
its tastes so divine
oh...all that we knew, it seems so untrue I faced your life, come give me a try soon you'll know, when it's over

suicide, its me you swallow
all that was true for me
I'm not like you
but open your eyes
I drank from your mind
I phased your life, come give me a try all her life, she was searching

suicide
something's missing
