

One Side Zero, Shed The Skin

we did it this time to free your self control follow us this time
i wish i could swallow it this time when will the truth be told
swallow your eyes circle the tired, survive sharing the light we have lost you might believe that it was so lost forcing us down into another belief to carry us home
you wrote the words
swallow your rights sample the sweetness your life show me what it means to be free you might believe that it was so wrong
but you wrote the words
i feel like I've shed my skin we've done it this time we've lost all self control follow us this time, I wish I could imprisoned this time
but you wrote the words that we said so wrong
another disease thats killing us off so wrong, we're so wrong I feel like I shed my skin
