

One Side Zero, Soak

like the sea you are water, pushing for change all that I can see is a pool of rain wish I thought of this much sooner, it felt so right all the secrets soak can put out the flame after all, you were right so beautiful

held the wrongs from the rights

open mind show me your details and more believe only what you see, so wrong

so beautiful
