

One True Thing, Everything I Am

Waited too long for feelings this strong.
No one made me burn like this before.
Holding onto dreams,
forever, it seems.
And there's nothing I ever wanted more.

Anything you want from me,
is everything I want to be.
Anything you need from me,
well, it's everything I am.
And if I should ever leave,
just promise that you'll wait for me.
And anything you need from me,
well, it's all everything I am.

Losing yourself
within someone else.
Never knew I could feel so alive.
So hard to go,
with all that I know.
I hate to be the one to say goodbye!

Anything you want from me,
is everything I want to be.
Anything you need from me,
well, it's everything I am.
And if I should ever leave,
just promise that you'll wait for me.
Anything you need from me,
well, it's all everything I am.
