

One Vo1ce, All Alone

chorus: when I'm all alone I'm missin u, thinkin what has love brought      our positions to, seperate

Verse1: I never asked for the world
just a little piece of your heart and you gave me the best that you could
I never thought what we shared could ever fall apart.

It's so bad we gave up a chance can't explain how I missed all this romance
we slowly fell out of touch (ooh ooh oh)
cause I hurt so bad, I don't wanna be sad no more.
(Chorus)

Verse2: If I chose to stay would things ever change for the better, oh how I wish that they could I'd never ask you to rearrange your life for me, hey.

So glad we let love take it's path
it was you (who showed me the beauty of love)
and although it just could not last
(You mean more to me than you did before whooooooooo)

(repeat chorus 2x)
