

Onelinedrawing, Candle Song

I'm happy as the candle on my table that lights my words deserving atleast half the credit for giving me the chance to edit trickled out, articulate my thoughts and i am thankful for the light a little warmth, a little incense and it rains a longer time
