

OneRepublic, No Vacancy

I used to leave the doors unlocked
And leave the lights on
I used to stake awake
Just counting hours all night long
I had so many empty rooms
Inside the chateau

I'm done with sharing space with people
That I don't know
Trading pieces of my heart till I feel shallow
I had so many empty rooms
Inside the chateau

Ever since I met you
No Vacancy
Because of you
There's no vacancy
No empty rooms
Got no vacancy
Ever since I met you
No Vacancy
Cause of you

Used to be that I feel so damn empty
Ever since I met you
No Vacancy
/2x

No Vacancy
No Vacancy

Used to be that I feel so damn empty
Ever since I met you
No Vacancy
/2x

No Vacancy
No Vacancy

I used to be the type
To never take a chance
Had so many walls
You'd think I was a castle
I spent so many empty nights
With faces I don't know

But Ever since I met you
No Vacancy
Because of you
There's no vacancy
No empty rooms
Got no vacancy
Ever since I met you
No Vacancy
Cause of you

Used to be that I feel so damn empty
Ever since I met you
No Vacancy
/2x

No Vacancy
No Vacancy

Used to be that I feel so damn empty
Ever since I met you
No Vacancy
/2x

No Vacancy
No Vacancy
