

Oomph!, Anniversay

I hang around and stare at the scene
Its unbelievable and obscene
So fucking decadent and so clean
Its like a fucking film to me
A sudden sound is smashing my ears
A sudden light is feeding my fears
A sudden breeze is drying my tears
And then youre there and talk to me
So tell me do you see what I see ?
And tell me do you feel what I feel ?
And tell me do you know what I mean ?
Its like a fucking malady
I cant believe it happens to me
I try to run but I cannot flee
I hope youve come to rescue me:
Its a fucking anniversary!
Dont try to deny me!
Still hang around here watching the scene
Its very elegant and so green
So fucking chic, you know what I mean ?
Its like a fucking trip to me
A sudden touch is hitting me hard
A sudden warmth is eating my heart
A sudden feeling tears me apart
Are you still here to stay with me ?
Now tell me do you see what I see ?
And tell me do you feel what I feel ?
And tell me do you know what I mean ?
It fills me up with agony
I cant believe it happens to me
This is not where I wanted to be
I hope you ve come to set me free:
Its a fucking anniversary!
Dont try to deny me!
Dont try to treat me like that!
