

Open Hand, Never Alone

I don't know now
Its not the time, to talk about it
Are you calling out this time?
You'll see tonight,
Please leave on the light

Are we done this time?
Am I this all right?
You let me down
I know right now
I've tried before to find a way

I know, I'm home
When I walk in and see your face
But now, you're gone,
And my life seems so out of place

Why did I hide from you
From all the things you do
How can I last tomorrow
When I can't even go today?

Turned inside out,
You asked me why do I feel this way
So what now?
What's wrong? I know I feel the same
Even I know can't you see
I know why youre not here with me

I know, I'm home
When I walk in and see your face
But now you're gone and my life
Seems so out of place

Why did i hide from you
From all the things you do
How can i last tomorrow
When i can't even go today
Today, i knew when i said goodbye
