

Opshop, Awaken

Wide awake in my slumber
Dishes pilin to the sink
I caught a glimpse and I was sleepin
I tried on other faces
I tried on other spaces
Yeah

Contagious abandon
Im addicted to the charm
Some people give other people
A licence to take chance
A licence to make a change
Woah

Sleep in your darkness
Or walk on water and back again
Sleep in your thoughts now
Or try on other souls again, oh

[Chorus]
Awaken
Awaken
Awaken
Awaken

Wrestle with bravado
But you love it desperately, yeah
You and me were part of each other
I will see you when Im dreamin
May I see you when I dream

Oh, sleep in your darkness
Or walk on water and back again
Sleep in your thoughts now
Or try on other souls again, oh

Awaken
Awaken
Awaken
Awaken

If I could find myself a human race
That remembers my divine place
I could enter a life without a trace

Stoke the fire, were home tonight
Well fall to pieces and start again
Sleep in your souls or try on other thoughts again

Awaken
Awaken
Awaken
Awaken

[Instrumental To End]
