Opshop, Awaken

Wide awake in my slumber
Dishes pilin to the sink
I caught a glimpse and I was sleepin
I tried on other faces
I tried on other spaces
Yeah

Contagious abandon Im addicted to the charm Some people give other people A licence to take chance A licence to make a change Woah

Sleep in your darkness Or walk on water and back again Sleep in your thoughts now Or try on other souls again, oh

[Chorus] Awaken Awaken Awaken Awaken

Wrestle with bravado
But you love it desperately, yeah
You and me were part of each other
I will see you when Im dreamin
May I see you when I dream

Oh, sleep in your darkness Or walk on water and back again Sleep in your thoughts now Or try on other souls again, oh

Awaken Awaken Awaken Awaken

If I could find myself a human race That remembers my divine place I could enter a life without a trace

Stoke the fire, were home tonight Well fall to pieces and start again Sleep in your souls or try on other thoughts again

Awaken Awaken Awaken Awaken

[Instrumental To End]
