

Opshop, No Ordinary Thing

Was this to show you I would not fail you?
Was that the reason you were looking back?
So I'm trusting in existence
I'm thrusting on momentum.
I don't want to see these threads of love collide not ever again
No, not ever againno.

I know it's not working.
Knowledge will capture comfort one day,
and our worlds will be worth more than living once in this lifetime.
If we could liberate today, we could alleviate tomorrow,
But no one can reach the light switch they say
No', that's what they say

No my love, this is no ordinary thing
My love, my love, my love
This is no ordinary thing
No, this is no ordinary thing

I'm naked, I'm naked in this afterlife
I was falling, I was falling from the greatest highs
If everything, if everything should come to pass
Tell me, when are you coming home to stay?
When are you coming home to stay again?
To stay again.

Cause my love
This is no ordinary thing my love
My love, my love
This is no ordinary thing
No, no ordinary thing

We were compromised by our own hearts
Jealous seas couldn't keep us apart
I wanted to touch you but we stop when we start
I wanted to hold you, hold you
But here we are

Here we are.
This is no ordinary thing my love
No, this was no ordinary thing
This is no ordinary thing my love
This was no ordinary thing.
