

Orange Blue, Always On My Mind

Never will I understand
All the reasons I
Haven't found to face the end
Till the day I died
I was you too long
Felt my strength was gone

Now I know
That life isn't cruel
Just mistakes are unmerciful
I believe in destiny's hand
Though our love was due to this end
But you're always on my mind.
You are always on my mind

God I wish you could hear
All the thoughts in mind
That the world would disappear
Much too slow I die
I was you too long
So my strength is gone

Now I know
That life isn't cruel
Just mistakes are unmerciful
I believe in destiny's hand
Though our love was due to this end
But you're always on my mind.
Then you're always on my mind

And I hope that you agree
That the third chance would mean
Too much pain
In spite of your deceptive words
Though you fail to save our world
You're not to blame

Now I know
That life isn't cruel
Just mistakes are unmerciful
I believe in destiny's hand
Though our love was due to this end
But you're always on my mind.
You are always on my mind
