

Orange Blue, Forever

Some keep their arms always open
Some stay on earth even though they can fly
I'm not one of that kind heaven help those who believe
She says and leaves

Last night I found myself drowning
And so I ended up drinking my tears
From the skin of an angel heaven I wished it was her
But it wasn't her

Forever is a word she didn't want to say
She said Love don't work that way she never made a promise cause she didn't want to break it
Don't you cry someday I'll fly away

She said that we'll keep on searching
But I know there had been a chance that we missed
At someday somehow but if you don't want me by now
Just let me out

Forever is a word ...
