

Orange Fox, Feel It

So they say there is a border
When they cross, it fades away
It's the hardest of all journeys you make
You never faint before you reason
You never question your mistakes
Or keep your head, I'll keep your spine straight
And I'll freeze? it in your face

Don't need a wall, you got me coming now
(Can you feel it? Can you feel it?)
So far away, but I was all you had
(Can you feel it? Can you feel it?)

Tried to hide it, you're so emotional
Everybody could sense a rise of thought
Faith decided, oh (can you feel it?)
Now get your feet up from the surface
Feel your mind and make a change
All the things you lose in this life
Only matter at close range

Don't need a wall, you got me coming now
(Can you feel it? Can you feel it?)
So far away, but I was all you had
(Can you feel it? Can you feel it?)
Oh, now it's up to you
(Try to reach out, try to reach out)
Go on, keep lovin' me like a fool
(Try to reach out, try to reach out)

Your soul will fight it, there's no deny!
They'll try to undermine it, so underline it
