

Orange Goblin, Scorpionica

My god rises at daybreak
My goddess goes down on me at dawn
Hallucinate what is on the horizon
Scorpionica, she is born

My brain sings revolution
She sends life to the heart of the sun
Hallucinate what the sunrise is hiding
Scorpionica has begun

And as the sun burns on
And takes my soul away
The solar titan rises
And lives to shine another day

I got burnt for my madness
She got high on the heart of my soul
Sonic titans are riding the sunrise
Scorpionica, she is born
