

Oratorio, Touch of Your Love

Far away from home memories from the distant call Just all these broken dreams that are left of me..

After all this time I can still remember..

Touch of Your love
changes my heart and soul
with tears in my eyes
I kneel before Your throne of grace

In Your eyes I see Your burning love to me Lord I know there is no place too deep to You

Touch of Your love
changes my heart and soul
with tears in my eyes
I kneel before Your throne of grace
