

Orbita Wiru, Stronger, much stronger

You recognize
between the crowd
the man, who can't find his own place.
Where could he sit down
on mystic throne,
and it would stop
incredible pain.
Remember his sight,
lost and insane,
freakish step,
stench in the air.
He accosted you,
nervously asked:
"Where the fuck
is nearest toilet?"
Stronger, much stronger
every heart beats,
when the ass is full of shit.
I'm suffering from the trots pour out through my nose.
Where is the nearest toilet
Where is the nearest toilet
Stronger, much stronger
every heart beats,
when the ass is full of shit.
