</lyrics>

Deep deep, in the translucence of the ocean's bottom
Small flowers are dozing off
The melody of the sweet wind passes through a rainbow
As fish play in the sky

Everyone is playing the melody of love
Showered in a warm light
Within the waters embrace
That gaze dissolves and flows away

If you listen carefully, the whispered melody of the constellations can be heard
The pale flame that is flicking
Cupped gently in your hands, is evidence of life
Why don't you try dipping it into the sea of stars

Even tonight, the legend comes full circle
Lighting up the night sky
As if longing to meld the past and the future
Let's dream

Everyone is playing the melody of love
Showered in a warm light
Within the waters embrace
That gaze dissolves and flows away

Tonight, as the legend comes full circle
Lighting up the night sky
As if longing to meld the past and the future
Let's dream
