

Orion's Reign, Darkness Comes

Verse:

Here He comes, covered in black
A black light candle in his hand
He comes to claim your treasured soul
It's too late for you to repent

His sickle shines above your head
You'll cross a path from light to dark
Your end is nigh and darkness comes
So leave all of your hopes behind

Bridge

You are so weak with no will full of fear you have wasted your life so live no longer
Your time has come no return from the dark diving into the pits of blood and fire Judgement is near as you're falling from grace see the end coming close you will burn in hellfire Demons await they will feast on your soul that belongs to the one who will show no mercy

Refrain

From a sea of pain, from a sea of hate, see my life rising through the darkness
'I will stand alone, I'll reclaim my soul,
I will fight, I will win my life back

Verse:

His name is Death, The Reaper Lord
The prince of darkness scenes him out
He rides his steed across the sky
He comes to read you your last rites

Your fate is sealed what will it be End up in Heaven or in hell
But rest assured him if you see
Your place in hell is well reserved
